

Refrigeration Safety Awareness

Wednesday, January 24, 2018

8 am – 4:30 pm

Langley Sportsplex

This 8-hour classroom course, prepares students to write the British Columbia Safety Authority BCSA provincial Refrigeration Safety Awareness RSA exam. The course is suited for personnel working in any regulated refrigeration facility (whose job duties do not include operation and or repair of the refrigeration plant) or for IFO or RO certificate holders seeking a refresher course on plant safety. Course content comprises of four sections;

SECTION 1 - BC REFRIGERATION SAFETY LEGISLATION: safety regulations, CSA refrigeration code, RSA certificate holder responsibilities, log book use, accident reporting and safety committee.

SECTION 2 - REFRIGERATION SYSTEMS: basic refrigeration system components, refrigerants and lubricant use and monitoring, safety valves and operating and safety controls.

SECTION 3 - SAFETY EQUIPMENT: accident types and prevention, fire classification and prevention and, emergency breathing apparatus.

SECTION 4 - GENERAL SAFETY: safety alarms and shut down devices, emergency shutdown, evacuation procedure and safe work practices

Registration Fee: Members $340/Non-Members $380.00

To register, please go our web site www.rfabc.com and click on courses

Don't be disappointed register now!