Notification:

August 23, 2021

This notice serves as formal communication of Critical Environment Technologies (CET)'s decision to rename the QCC-RDM Remote Display Module and change the part number to avoid confusion as we discontinue the QCC Quad Channel Controller.

The features and functionality of the RDM have not changed and it will continue to be sold with the FCS Flexible Control System controllers. The only changes are the part numbers listed below and the label on the front of the device.
